

Your Commitment

You must be able to commit to a minimum of 27 days per year, including up to 15 days continuous training.

You must be between the ages of 18-54 upon initial entry and be medically fit. A full medical will be carried out before entry. You must pass the RAF Fitness Test and other mandatory training.

Some companies will allow an extra 10 days leave for RAF Reserves Service. The Human Resources Department will be able to provide your company's policy on military Reserve Service.

Our Commitment

In return for your commitment you will receive:

- Rank related daily rates of pay.
- Travel expenses to and from duty.
- An annual Tax free bounty, provided you have met the minimum commitment.

Benefits

- Meet new people.
- Enjoy an active social life.
- Learn and develop new skills.
- Experience travel and adventure.
- Increase your self-confidence.
- Develop management and leadership skills.
- Transferable skills for civilian employment.

 ROYAL AIR FORCE
REGULAR & RESERVE
505 (WESSEX) SQUADRON
Based at St Mawgan, Newquay

RAF RESERVES RECRUITING NOW

505 Squadron's Mission

To Provide trained personnel to work in support of RAF operations in the UK and worldwide.

Roles Currently Available:

- Chef
- Driver
- Human Resources
- Intelligence analyst
- Intelligence Officer
- Logistics supplier
- Logistics Officer
- Personnel Officer
- RAF Police
- Subject Matter Experts with previous military service

Overview

505 (Wessex) Squadron is a brand new Royal Air Force Reserve Squadron based at RAF St Mawgan, Newquay, Cornwall.

505 (Wessex) Squadron will recruit and train Part-Time Volunteer Reservists from across the South West of England in order to support the Royal Air Force in United Kingdom tasks or on deployed operations.

505 (Wessex) Squadron is a General Support Squadron providing support in a number of roles. To do this, it will recruit and train Drivers, Chefs, Suppliers, RAF Policemen, HR specialists and Intelligence Analysts in airmen ranks. There are also opportunities for personnel to progress to officer rank. Whilst Ex-Regular personnel from the Armed Forces are welcome, no previous military experience is required to join.

505 (Wessex) Squadron is located at St Mawgan, Newquay, Cornwall TR8 4HP.

Benefits

Pay is rank related and paid per day or part day worked. An annual Tax free bounty is payable on meeting a qualifying criteria.

There is also for a set time the opportunity for Ex-Regulars that meet a the qualifying criteria to receive the Ex-Regular Financial Incentive award of £10,000 paid over a duration of 3 years on meeting the 4 Key Milestones. See IBN 51/14 for further details.

Adventure training is classed as duty and can be applied for as paid working days which will be overseen and authorised by OC 505 Squadron.

Squadron members are entitlement to Standard Learning Credits.

Home to Duty will be calculated in line with Joint Services Publication 752 up to a maximum of 50 miles each way (for a greater distance a dispensation can be applied for).

Promotion / New Positions

All available positions will be advertised and promotion boards held as required in order to promote Squadron personnel.

Annual reports will be raised in the same way as for Regular RAF personnel. Whilst serving as a RAF Reserve individuals are subject to the same Service Discipline, Regulations and standards as a Regular.

ROYAL AIR FORCE REGULAR & RESERVE 505 (Wessex) Squadron

To apply:

www.raf.mod.uk/recruitment
0345 606 9069

 /rafrecruitment  @RAF_Recruitment