

Anthony Walker Foundation

Organisation Name and purpose	Anthony Walker Foundation is a registered charity established by Anthony's family after his racially motivated murder in 2005. The aims and objectives of the charity are to promote racial harmony through education, sport and the arts, promoting the celebration of diversity and personal integrity and to realise the potential of all young people. AWF operates locally, regionally and nationally but the priority focus is Merseyside. AWF works to prevent youth involvement in hate crime by working with all young people across racial groups to feel secure in their identity and empowered to welcome and celebrate diversity in their communities. This is done primarily through arts and education-based workshops on diversity; inclusion delivered locally and nationally through schools and youth clubs; and the annual arts/sport/education AWF festival in Liverpool celebrating diversity in the month of Anthony's anniversary. Such activities and events contribute to improving community cohesion and promote social inclusion.
